

Is Your Stronghold Showing

Carnal man, New man, Spiritual man, World, flesh, spirit, Spirit, Battle:

My Father, "IS" my stronghold showing through today? If so which one? Is the life's blood of the world being exposed in my every random thought as I seek to devour my spirit blood? Am I acting on my inner canyon rebounds as passersby see only the beauty of the brightly shining array of color on the outside rim of the canyons?

My Father is my stronghold showing today? If so which one? Is the dead man's flesh being exposed in my every random thought in the canyons of my mind? As I look above I do I not see the usual light shining on the canyons today. I only see circling above the vulture, NO many vultures! I would like to believe their search does not stop at this pound of flesh. Yes, that is what they are doing, I see many fleshly people following me in the canyons of my mind.

My Father is my stronghold showing? If so which one? Is it the prince of the air's shimmering dull diffusion imitating Satan's deception of beautiful colors drawing me to the wrong side of the canyons of my mind? How is it that this deceptive battle still rages on in the swirling eddies of the river etching deep in the canyons of my mind?

My son it takes many years to form the canyons that exist in your mind. In fact, at one time there was only one form of erosion taking place forming the canyons of your mind. Remember my son it was before you knew Me, it was the harshness of the ever-raging river, and the constant banging together of the world, its ways, and the dead man's bones colliding against the walls of your mind forming the canyons.

Now my son there is truly a battle within the rivers flowing. It "IS" MY Spirit that lines the canyons. It "IS" My Spirit that brings crystal clear water of TRUTH. It "IS" My Spirit within the very wall's that bring rivers of life within you.

Now my son there "IS" a flow within the canyons that "IS" the Truth, which "IS," the Truth which "IS," My righteousness. It "IS" within this flow that the battle will rage!

You see my son; you have a choice weather or not to contemplate the rivers of My righteousness. This contemplation will manifest itself by allowing the world, the flesh, and Satan to control they're very being, within their own grey matter.

Now this is how you know that one or more of the canyons of My righteousness in your mind is polluted. Your own carnal nature will be found trying to swim upstream where the battle is won or lost by the very cadavers swimming against My righteousness in the canyons of your Spiritual mind.
