

The “Word of Truth” Spoken Through Paul

My father and my God, my will and spirit need to communicate with you today related to truth. I have been pondering the concept of truth as it relates to the first century, and beyond. One cannot read the simplicity of Paul’s concern to expound on truth, and its values and objectives, and not have a need to discern fully what, “You.” the designer’s intent for the world is.

Is it a true letter, or is there truth in the letter?

Truth: as in honesty?

Truth: as in the Word is the truth?

Truth: as in truth is the only truth?

Truth: as opposed to heresy?

Truth: as in discerning the Spirit of error and the Spirit of truth?

Truth: is it love, relationship, fellowship?

Truth: is it atonement, sacrifice, forgiveness, mercy, or grace?

Truth: Is Paul writing from a sense of ethics or the assurance of salvation?

Truth: The truth Paul is passionately sharing with us, is it the intellectual truth, or is it from a moral value, related to the heiresses of the day?

Truth: Can truth be revealed to me?

My son, the letter is written from the true spirit of love, mercy, and grace. The letter’s intent is for my children whom I love, the letters intent is for a dying world that lives in self-indulgence. The letters intent is to clearly show those who have an ear, to actively hear, and to expose the deceptions of the carnal nature. You see my son; it is your faith and character that determines whether I will be revealed to your will.

The intent is for those who are blinded by the spirit of error, by those who have left Me, or never knew Me, and that are consciously misrepresenting My Word; for those misguided, to be more enlightened and strengthened to the point of being founded solidly on the Spirit of My Truth.

The Spirit of My intent, and My righteous will, is to expose first to My children that the battle is not from within the sound body of my church, but the devastating destruction comes from the prince of the world that is outside my body walking in darkness.

My intent from the beginning is to proclaim to the world that it lives in darkness tortured by the ignorance of intellectualism and self-indulgence.

Out of this darkness comes a light of moral truth eliminated by My righteousness that is found in My Image covered with human flesh, “Jesus.” This illumination in the flesh is The Truth; that expresses My Love, Mercy, and Grace, this incarnate human flesh (Jesus) is the deity that represents The True Godhead.

My Son Jesus Christ, is The Word of Truth, sacrificed for the sins of the world, and is your atonement. Walk in His illumination, it will be your guide through the darkness of a temporary faithful journey, to the everlasting truth, which is My justification, and your assurance that we will be together, for at least an eternity.
